Rhonda Bennett

PMP®, MCPM, CPC, CB-PMO®, PCCP

Rhonda Bennett is the Founder and Principal Consultant of Rhonda Bennett & Team, advising senior leaders and enterprise organizations on leadership clarity, strategy execution, and performance accountability. With extensive experience leading enterprise PMOs and complex transformation portfolios, she brings deep operational credibility to executive audiences. Her perspective is grounded in real responsibility for results, governance discipline, and organizational alignment.

Rhonda speaks to senior project professionals, middle management leaders, and C-suite executives navigating complexity and transformation pressure. Her sessions focus on closing the gap between strategic intent and disciplined execution, delivering structured clarity, governance insight, and practical frameworks that experienced leaders can apply immediately. Attendees leave sharper in judgment, stronger in alignment, and more disciplined in execution.

Speaking Topics

Leadership in Complexity:

Clarity Is a Strategic Advantage

Leaders will learn to make confident decisions, align teams, and lead with intention when the path forward is uncertain.

From Strategy to Execution:

Why Good Plans Stall

Equips leaders with the governance, accountability, and behavioral shifts required to close the gap between planning and delivery.

Project Managers:

Project Leadership Is People Leadership

This keynote reframes project leadership as a human leadership discipline.

The Leader's Brand:

How You Show Up Shapes Results

Explores how executive presence, consistency, and accountability shape credibility, influence, and measurable outcomes.

PMO Without Bureaucracy:

Building What the Business Actually Needs

This session challenges traditional models and outlines how to design governance structures that enable strategy rather than create administrative overhead.
